

Queries, Forms and Reports In MS Access 2010

A. Multiple Choice Questions

- 1) Identify the icon used to open the Query Design dialog box.

Ans: - (c)

- 2) Identify the icon used to see the result of the query.

Ans: - (a)

- 3) Queries, reports and forms are of the MS Access.

Ans: (a) objects

- 4) A is an effective way to present data in a printed form.

Ans: (c) report

B. Very Short Answer Questions

- 1) Write the function of the Sort row and Show row headings.

Ans: Sort row: It is used to arrange records in ascending or descending order.

Show row: It is used to decide whether a field will be displayed in the query result or not.

- 2) Define the primary key and the foreign key.

Ans: - Primary key: A primary key is a field that uniquely identifies each record in a table. It cannot contain duplicate values.

Foreign key: A foreign key is a field in one table that refers to the primary key of another table. It is used to establish a relationship between tables.

C. Short Answer Questions

- 1) Name the three views in which a form is displayed.

Ans: The three views of a form in MS Access are: a) Form View b) Layout View c) Design View

- 2) Define the terms: report, form and query.

Ans: Report: A report is an effective way to present your data in a printed format.

Form: A form is a graphical representation of a table.

Query: A Query displays specific records from a table that meets a certain criterion.

D. Long Answer Questions

- 1) How do you create a form?

Ans: To create a form, select the table for which you want to create the form and follow these steps:

1. Click the Create tab on the Ribbon.

2. Click Form in the Forms group. Access creates a form and places all the fields of the selected table on the form.

3. Use the Navigation pane to move through the records on the form.

- 2) Explain the design grid of the query window.

Ans: The design grid shown the following headings:

a) Field row displays the fields from the selected table.

b) Table row displays the name of the table

c) Short row is used to filter the data in ascending or descending order.

d) Show row displays a check mark that indicates that this field will be visible when the query is executed.

e) Criteria row is used to specify the condition on the basis of which the records will be filtered.

- 3) Write the steps to create a relationship between tables in MS Access.

Ans : NO need